January Artist of the Month: Georgia Cockerham

We are thrilled to shine the spotlight on the creative talents of Georgia Cockerham, January's Artist of the Month at the Crescent Harbor Gallery.

January's Artist of the Month Exhibition

G.A. Cockerham (Georgia) is both an artist and author who, with husband Bruce, lives on the southern Oregon coast, an area that has inspired much of her writing, including the O'Toole/Starker Oregon Coast Murder Mystery series. She holds a BA degree, is a retired financial advisor and insurance broker, and is the author of nine published books. Georgia is a member of Mystery Writers of America and the Watercolor Society of Oregon. She serves on the Coos-Curry Electrical Cooperative board of directors and is a volunteer for the Curry County Sheriff's Office.

Georgia verifies her law enforcement references in the Oregon Coast murder mysteries by enlisting the help of Bruce as her technical consultant. Bruce is a retired police chief with 30 years law enforcement experience.

“Innovative: A new idea expressed, a breakthrough achieved, an original approach taken.”

Come and showoff your creativity!

Reminder to renew your membership for 2025. Your membership helps keep this coastal gem of a gallery open!
Please note that the prices have changed. Contact the gallery or see the webpage for the new member registration form. Your promptness is appreciated.

Volunteering is also crucial to our success! We are looking for a secretary at board meetings, and are always looking for board members in general. Come be involved in future decisions concerning the gallery. We want as much member input as possible. We are also still looking for help with art classes. Share your creative expertise!
Crescent Harbor Art Gallery,
a true community treasure

Get your creative juices flowing! The gallery is open to the public during business hours to come and express themselves with the provided materials. It's a great activity for kids accompanied by an adult.
